

Level Expected at the End of EYFS

Understanding the World (People and Communities)

Children talk about past and present events in their own lives and in the lives of family members. They know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, communities and traditions.

Understanding the World (The World)

Children know about similarities and differences in relation to places, objects, materials and living things. They talk about the features of their own immediate environment and how environments might vary from one another.

Key Stage 1 National Curriculum History Expectations			Key Concepts:
Pupils should be taught about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Changes within living memory. Where appropriate, these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life;</li> <li>• Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally [for example the Great Fire of London, the first aero plane flight or events commemorated through festivals or anniversaries];</li> <li>• The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. Some should be used to compare aspects of life in different periods [for example Elizabeth I and Queen Victoria, Christopher Columbus and Neil Armstrong, William Caxton and Tim Berners-Lee, Pieter Bruegel the Elder and LS Lowry, Rosa Parks and Emily Davison, Mary Seacole and/or Florence Nightingale and Edith Cavell];</li> <li>• Significant historical events, people and places in their own locality.</li> </ul>			Chronology
